

Dear Parent/Carer,

You are warmly invited to the Year 9 Options Evening, which will take place next week on Wednesday 4 February, from 3:30pm to 5:30pm. This is an important event designed to support your child in making informed decisions about the subjects they will study in Years 10 and 11.

Join us for your dinner/tea

The evening will begin at 3:30pm, where you are welcome to join us for some food (cottage pie will be available) and refreshments.

Information event

The information part of the event will start promptly at 4:00pm. From 4:00pm, the programme will include a talk from myself about the significance of the options process and how your child will be guided in making their choices. You and your child will also have the opportunity to speak with subject specialists and ask any questions you may have. An options booklet will be provided on the evening, containing full details of the process and information about each subject on offer. Upon arrival, you will be given a card signalling which group you are allocated:
